

Canada Graduate Scholarship Masters (CGS M) - NSERC/SSHRC/CIHR

Deadline: online application to be submitted before December 2, 2013 (8:00 p.m. ET).

The objective of the Canada Graduate Scholarships-Master's (CGS M) Program is to help develop research skills and assist in the training of highly qualified personnel by supporting students who demonstrate a high standard of achievement in undergraduate and early graduate studies. Applicants should contact their academic unit for more information:

<http://www.mcgill.ca/gps/about/contacts/>

McGill
Deadline      Academic Unit will require a hardcopy of the application. It is imperative that students contact the Academic Unit and verify the deadline to submit the hard copy of application.

How to
Apply          Online application via "Research Portal" hosted on NSERC website". Submit printed copy of online application and all supporting documents to the Academic Unit by deadline set by the unit. See below for more details

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- be a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada;
- be enrolled in, or intend to apply for full-time admission* to an eligible graduate program at the master's or doctoral level at a Canadian university with a CGS M allocation;
- have completed, as of December 31 of the year of application, between zero and 12 months of full-time studies (or full-time equivalent) in:
  - the master's program for which you are requesting funding; or
  - the doctoral program for which you are requesting funding if you were admitted into a doctoral program directly from your bachelor's program

(you were never registered in a master's program, or you are registered in a combined Master's-PhD program); or

- a master's program, but are requesting funding for a doctoral program (an example is a student who is fast-track from a master's to a doctoral program within 12 months of starting their Master's and is seeking funding for the first 12 months of their doctoral program); and
- not have previously held a CGS M;
- have achieved a first-class average in the last two completed years of study (full-time equivalent)
