It is with great pleasure that I announce that this year's Howard Katz Award for Excellence in Teaching has been awarded to Dr. Sam Abi Nader.

Sam was selected for this year's award in recognition to his outstanding contributions to the undergraduate teaching program in the Faculty of Dentistry. His devotion in developing and continually improving the undergraduate preclinical dental program as well as the countless hours he dedicates to preclinical and clinical teaching and promoting the highest standard of care for patients were highlighted in the nominating letters.

Congratulations to Dr. Abi Nader on being named recipient of this award.
