

Volunteer at Sharing Smiles Day

Hey everyone!

Oral Health Total Health (OHTH) is organizing Montreal's first ever Sharing Smiles Day on April 7th at Miriam Home for intellectually disabled adults. The day involves a carnival (from 9 am-12 pm), followed by an oral hygiene demonstration given by dentists (1 pm-3pm). We're looking for volunteers throughout the day for the carnival as well as setting up in the morning and helping with clean-up in the afternoon. Below is a list of the activities and the number of volunteers we are looking for. Send us an email (ohth.carnival@gmail.com) by March 20th if you are interested, it'll be a chance for us to all get out of preclinic/M60/libraries and interact with real people!!!

Registration (2 more volunteers)

Yoga/stretching (1 more volunteer)

Music/singalong (1 more volunteer)

Cupcake decorating (2 volunteers)

Volunteers to accompany participants through the carnival (10 volunteers working in pairs for each group)

Lunch set-up (12-1pm), hygiene demonstration set-up, clean-up (3pm-5pm) (at least 4 volunteers number of volunteers)

We would also like the volunteers at the following stations to confirm their presence at the carnival.

Hockey (Matt Savoie, Ryan Campbell, Stephen Wong)

Music/singalong (Robert Vincelli)

Bowling (Ashley Ta, Michelle Kakade)

Yoga/Stretching (Natashia Bose-Roberts)

Photobooth (Li, Chi Yu)

Toothbrush holder decoration (Jasmine Wright, Emily Baker)

Please note that all those who are running a station are responsible for setting it up at 9 am and cleaning up after the carnival between 12 and 12:30 pm.

Looking forward to hearing from you!
