

SPIDEY'S WEB OF AMAZING TALENT SOON TO EMBRACE THE MILE END COMMUNITY MISSION

Montreal - April 21st, 2014 — SPIDEY, Canada's Got Talent Finalist and star of Guzzo Magic series with over 6 million viewers will be performing a benefit show for the Mile End Community Mission at the beautiful Théâtre Rialto on May 26th, 2014 at 8pm. Mesmerizing crowds across North America and beyond with his phenomenal abilities as an international hypnotist/mentalist, Spidey will weave his unique web of amazing talent for a single night only English hypnosis performance. This major event will help raise funds for this landmark community mission serving disadvantaged individuals and families living in and around the Mile End area of Montreal. "With a history of performing for other local charities, Spidey recently wowed members of our mission with a sneak preview performance that left everyone in the room scratching their heads and wanting more!" said Executive Director of the Mile End Community Mission, Lou Hachey. If you want to know what the entertainment industry is saying about Spidey, MTV UK says "He's Amazing!" while Discovery Channel referred to Spidey's abilities as "Ridiculous! Just crazy!" Martin Short and the judges on Canada's Got Talent declared Spidey as "[...]by far the most outstanding hypnotist we have seen."

General admission tickets for the Rialto show are $20 and can be purchased at the Théâtre Rialto, on their website: <http://www.theatrerialto.ca/en/programmation/variety/6-431-spidey-magic-mentalist-hypnotist.html>, or by contacting the Mile End Community Mission at: (514) 274-3401/ general@mileendmission.org.

The Mile End Community Mission is a centre that provides structure, purpose and meaning to those struggling with the effects of chronic poverty and social exclusion. "Proceeds of this benefit show will help sustain the Mission's Programs which foster a community of care, inclusion and hope to anyone in need. In the past year the Mission served over 8,000 free meals and distributed 10,000 bags of groceries to a growing number of individuals and families in great need in our neighborhood", said Hachey.
