

It is with great pleasure that I announce that this year's Dr. Ralph Silverstone Teaching Award has been awarded to Dr. Veronique Benhamou.

Veronique was selected for this year's award in recognition to her outstanding contributions to the undergraduate teaching program in the Faculty of Dentistry.

Her passion and dedication to teaching, professionalism in teaching students and attending patients, the countless hours she devoted to the periodontics program and the highest standard of care for patients were highlighted in the nominating letters. The award will be presented to Dr. Benhamou at the White Coat Ceremony on Thursday, September 5, 2014.

Congratulations to Dr. Benhamou on being named recipient of this award.
